THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS: The

one symbol most often identified with Jesus and his Church is the cross. On Monday, September 14 we celebrate The Exaltation of the Holy Cross. This feast traces its beginning to Jerusalem and the dedication of the church built on the site of Mount Calvary in 335.

But the meaning of the cross is deeper than any city, any celebration, any building. The cross is a sign of suffering; a sign of human cruelty at its worst. But by Christ's love shown in the Paschal Mystery, it has become the sign of triumph and victory, the sign of God, who is love itself. The cross does not explain pain and misery. It does not give us any easy answers. But it does help us to see our lives united with Christ's. We often make the Sign of the Cross over ourselves. We make it before prayer to help fix our minds and hearts on God. We make it after prayer, hoping to stay close to God. In trials and temptations, the cross is a sign of strength and protection. The cross is the sign of the fullness of life that is ours. Today, let us look to the cross often. Let us make the Sign of the Cross and realize we bring our whole selves to God—our minds, souls, bodies, wills, thoughts, hearts—everything we are and will become.

O cross, you are the glorious sign of our victory

PRO-LIFE REFLECTIONS: September 14 is the Feast of the Triumph of the Holy Cross. Because His death destroyed our own, the Cross is a symbol of ultimate triumph over evil and a symbol of the cross we must embrace in everyday life. If we work to save the unborn, we are subject to ridicule and rejection. Our plans for pro-life activity should not be geared towards avoiding rejection but rather should count on it.

PRAYER: Lord, may we see the cross as our triumph today and forever.

VOCATION VIEW: For if we live, we live for the Lord. (Romans 14:8).
