ST. BONIFACE CHURCH

FOUR GRAND CLUB NEWS: Congratulations to Rolf Obercht, Darlene Benson, and Debby Sullivan. They are the winners of the October 20 drawing and each won $25.

FROM OUR PARISH HEALTH MINISTRY comes food for thought: One quick way to improve your day might be to sniff a lemon! For a quick de-stressing trick, turn to your sense of smell. Japanese researchers found that linalool, a substance found in lemons, may reduce the “flight-or-flight” stress response. Not into lemons? Try basil, juniper, or lavender – those scents have also been found to lower stress.

REMEMBER THOSE WHO HAVE GONE
BEFORE US

ALL SOULS MEMORIAL: Remember your deceased loved ones at a Mass said once a week for all enrolled in this Memorial. Envelopes can be found at the doors of church.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD PANTRY: Don't forget to bring non-perishable food items for our Thanksgiving Dinner Food Drive. Our pantry guests can pick up items at our drive-thru pantry on November 7, 14, or 21. Your generosity at this time of the year is especially appreciated.

VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE: VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK: NOVEMBER 1-7: The men and women religious in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati are coming together to provide a virtual open house to their communities this coming week. If you have been thinking about being a priest, brother or sister, this is a great opportunity to meet and greet some awesome religious from different communities and learn basic information about consecrated life. For more information and the schedule of different sessions, go to this link www.tinyURL.com/CincyVAW.

FOOD FOR ALL: Hunger exists in our communities. Catholic Charities of Southwestern Ohio travels to where hunger is located to serve local families. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, our pantries are changing to drive-thru pantries. We could use your help! Interested in serving? Please email ahoak@ccswoh.org or call April Hoak, Food for All coordinator, 513-672-3720.

PRAY A MINUTE: ONE MILLION HOURS OF PRAYER FOR PEACE, JUSTICE, AND GOODWILL: If you believe in the power of prayer, just imagine what might happen if every Catholic would pray just one minute more than they already do, every day, for the specific intention of peace, justice, and goodwill? From now until January 1, the World Day of Prayer for Peace, Catholics from across the Archdiocese of Cincinnati are invited to unite in prayer for the spiritual renewal of our Country. Together, we will pray one million hours! Learn more and commit to doing your part at www.PrayAMinute.com.

UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS, USCCB, is an excellent resource for learning more about our Catholic faith. For instance, an explanation was given on the difference between the Bible and the Lectionary used at Mass. “Readings from Scripture are part of every Mass. At least two readings, one always from the Gospels, (3 on Sundays and solemnities) make up the Liturgy of the Word. In addition, a psalm or canticle is sung. These readings are typically read from a Lectionary, not a Bible, though the Lectionary is taken from the Bible.

A Lectionary is composed of the readings and the responsorial psalm assigned for each Mass of the year (Sundays, weekdays, and special occasions). The readings are divided by the day or the theme (baptism, marriage, vocations, etc.) rather than according to the books of the Bible. Introductions and conclusions have been added to each reading. Not all of the Bible is included in the Lectionary.

Individual readings in the Lectionary are called pericopes, from a Greek word meaning a "section" or "cutting." Because the Mass readings are only portions of a book or chapter, introductory phrases, called incipits, are often added to begin the Lectionary reading, for example, "In those days," "Jesus said to his disciples," etc.” (Excerpt taken from the USCCB website: usccb.org)

VOCATION VIEW: Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. (Mt 5:9) If you want to talk about your discernment, please contact Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer, Director of Vocations, dschmitmeyer@catholiccincinnati.org.
