REFLECTION BY FR. RUDY

Fr. Rudy Coaquira-Hijale,
MCCJ, pastor

It is the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, and as we begin to conclude our liturgical year in a few weeks, we are discussing a parable today about the end times in Matthew's Gospel. Jesus described the Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids, five who are wise and five who are foolish, in a private moment with His disciples on the Mount of Olives. This parable illustrates the coming of the bridegroom, Jesus Christ, to the wedding banquet (the Kingdom of Heaven) and the need for us to live in a manner that anticipates His return. On His arrival, we should always maintain enough oil for our lamps to light the way. And the oil that fuels our lamp is that of our faith going out into the world; the light given to us at Baptism and which continues to live in the light of the cross in our lives. To live in such vigilance means we must do all things to enhance our faith and prepare for His coming, "no matter the day nor the hour."

As Christians, many of us are prepared for and anticipate Christ coming by how we live and what we do on a daily basis. For example, we are thoughtful in our relationships with others; we practice good works such as the spiritual and corporal works of mercy; we make prayer a constant in our lives; and we are life learners in seeking to understand our faith more fully. We realize all things must come to an end and that some day each of us will die; we recognize the final thoughts of the Hail Mary, "Now and at the hour of our death, Amen." All the good works we accomplish here on earth will help us gain entrance to the messianic banquet of heaven. Let us have our lamps always filled to light the way.

FALL FESTIVAL ON NOVEMBER 19: Just one more week. It's still not too late to have an active part in making the day a huge success. We especially need desserts for the dinner, so if you have a special recipe you want to share, now is the time! We hope to see you here! The festival won't be the same without you!!

FAIR TRADE SALE: The annual archdiocesan Fair Trade Sale, done in partnership with Ten Thousand Villages and supporting Catholic Relief Services, will occur on Saturday, Nov. 18, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., at Curran Place at the University of Dayton. There will be music, food, entertainment, and of course lots of great shopping opportunities – both from local vendors and from international partners. It's a great opportunity to get an early jump on your holiday shopping AND do it in a way that demonstrates your commitment to the dignity of work and workers, global solidarity, and justice. Contact Jill Foster at jfoster@catholicaoc.org with any questions or to join as a participant organization.

READ ABOUT YEAR 1 OF BEACONS OF LIGHT AND TELL US WHAT YOU THINK: Curious about how the first year of Beacons of Light has gone in our 57 Families of Parishes? Archbishop Schnurr has released the Year 1 Parish Vitality Report to bring everyone in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati up to date. In addition to facts, figures, stories and witness, there's an opportunity for you to give feedback on your experience of parish life. Check it out at www.catholicaoc.org/pvr.

HELP LOCAL REFUGEES: With a large influx of refugees coming to Cincinnati, Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio Refugee Resettlement Services needs your help for the families we are receiving. We need donations of furniture and other household items (linens, dishes, pots and pans, etc.). Volunteers are greatly needed to pick up furniture and set up housing, as well as to serve as mentors for refugee youth. To find lists of needed items or to learn more about volunteering, visit www.ccswoh.org or call our office at 513-241-7745.
